feible man to express. The antitypical jubilee trumpets, which is God's Truth, is sounding throughout the length and breadth of the world announcing liberty, justice and equity to all mankind. The restlessness that is upon the world today is the result of the sounding of the jubilee trumpets, and this world-wide commotion will not cease, but will grow worse until the bonds of oppression and injustice are broken. I am glad that restitution to all that was lost in Father Adam will soon be in full swing and the home coming of all the families of the earth begin. In the type, only the living members of the families returned, but in this antitypical jubilee year, which is a 1000 years long, all the members of the families, both the living and the dead will return home. Have we any scriptures for this? Yes, "If there be no resurrection of the dead then is Christ not risen; and if Christ be not risen, your faith is vain, ye are still in your sins," (1 Cor. 15:13-17). "The hour is coming in which all that are in their graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth unto resurrection of judgment," (Jno. 5:28, 29). I hear some one ask, "Will my friends some of whom were victims of the white plague and other deadly maladies, and who were mere skeletons and frightful to look upon when they died come back just as they went into death?" No thank God they will not return the same as they went into death. They will return with human bodies of flesh and blood, but vigorous and healthy. Have we any scripture for this? Yes, "But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body," (1 Cor. 15:38). You can rest assure dear friends, that a body that pleases the Lord is not a sickly diseased or deformed body.

This brings us to a question that is confusing to many to-wit: Is there a second chance for man to gain life everlasting? A simple illustration, I think, will serve to make this question very plain to all who desire to know the truth. Let us suppose that one John Jones and wife committed murder, and are convicted and sentenced to the pen for life; we will further suppose that they had no children before being sent to the pen; and we will again suppose that they were permitted to live together, in the prison, as man and wife, and have children born to them while in the state of condemnation. In the course of time there would be a number of grand and great grand children, all born and raised under that state of condemnation. Now let us suppose further that some good friend arranges for a new trial for John Jones and wife and also arranges to give their offspring an opportunity to show their worthiness to be recognized as good that the one who loved them enough to arrange a new trial for them, will be the Judge; and let us suppose that this prospective judge decides to educate a few of John Jones' children to be judges to sit on the bench with him to help judge their case before our minds who is so blind as to contend, that John Jones' children, born to him in prison under condemnation, have ever had a trial to prove their worthiness to good citizenship? The cold fact is that they have not and will not have a trial until the day set apart for that purpose; (Act. 17:31). In the case of John Jones and wife their new trial would be in the nature of a second chance and the only reason that Father Adam is let in on this new trial, is that, while he disobeyed God willfully, he did not have the experience, as the world now has, of the exceeding sinfulness of sin.

The children of John Jones on the day of trial would be having their first chance. John Jones and wife would correspond to Adam and Eve; their children to the world of mankind, the one who arranged for the new trial to Jesus Christ, the few children taken out and trained for judges would correspond to the little flock, the saints; (1 Cor. 6:2) the time used in selecting and training the few children for judges would represent the gospel Age. The resurrection of the dead is for the very purpose of giving all humanity, not including Father Adam and Mother Eve nor the Little Flock, their first chance for life everlasting. Coming back to the main part of our discourse, I wish to say that the whole world is longing for peace, lasting peace, but I am sorry to say that such cannot be had until the throne. He is the prime mover of all race hatred, wars, sickness, sorrow, pain, and death. He is being hard pushed by the army of justice. The big guns of truth are thundering as never before against injustice, oppression and error. There will be no armistice between truth and error, justice and injustice. Unconditional surrender or annihilation is the only orders given by the captain of our salvation. Allow me to say that every person even in the humblest walks of life who raises his voice or uses his influence against error and injustice is to that extent taking a shot at Kaiser of Kaisers, the Devil. The time is not long when the glad news will ring out through the whole world that the arch enemy of God and man has been dethroned and chained for 1000 years. A short time ago, the world went wild over the signing of the armistice, during that day, every flash over the wire bringing news favorable to peace was hailed with wild applause, and the people tried to demonstrate their feelings of joy in every conceivable way. They were happy even though the broken families were to remain broken, and the millions of dead were not to return. Let us try for a moment to picture what the joys to the world would be when Satan with all his agents and all their error, injustice and oppression are dethroned and all the billions of poor humanity began to return home from the land of the enemy, death. This jubilee shout which is soon to take place will not be for 24 hours, nor for one year, but for a thousand years. During this time a New Heaven (new power of spiritual control) and a new earth (new government, based upon love justice and equity) will be in operation; in other words, then will the whole world well recognize the New Jerusalem coming down to earth and the Tabernacle of God dwelling among men, and there shall be no more sighing, crying, pain or death for the former things will have, all down the ages, been watching with indiscribable interest, the proceedings of God's Great Plan will shout the glad tidings throughout the the Universe when Satans' Empire is overthrown and the world of mankind restored to all that was lost in Eden.

When we look out upon this wide world and see so much sickness, sorrow, pain, death and destructions of all description, how our poor hearts jubilee, we are glad to know that the poor, ignorant and oppressed of the whole world, including those that have already gone into death, will soon come into their own, and have a chance to live life over again and gain life everlasting by being obedient to the rules of the New Covenant. Let us take courage in this hour of truth and error, justice and injustice. We should battle with error and injustice on every inch of the ground, and never give up the struggle until the Captain of our salvation says there is enough done. I beg to remain an humble servant for the truth,

RICHARD J. HILL.

BIG NEGRO CONCERN

The Ardmore Lubricating Oil Co., has valuable leases and a great future, says Mr. A. A. Young of Muskogee, Okla., one of our successful farmers and business men of Creek County.

After reading about the Ardmore Lubricating Oil Co. at Tatum, Okla., I made a visit to Tatum, Dec. 10, and took a good look over the Company's property, and surrounding territory. There are great opportunities for our people to better their conditions if this field is developed. The Company is on a sure foundation, under the management. The oil is SURE THERE. I saw it. The wells and refinery buildings are there, and the machinery coming.

I think it a safe investment for our people, and the large acreage owned by the company means millions of dollars for our people.

I can firmly say that Mr. H. E. Baker, Supt. and Manager, Stock Salesman is putting forth every effort to make the Company a grand one for all the people.

DUNBAR GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

Dunbar Parent-Teacher's Association will effect its organization in the near future. The slogan for this year will be, "Better boys and girls."

Dunbar expects a large per cent of pupils and teachers to answer the Red Cross call. For the final drive, one of the soldier boys will be asked to speak.

Old Glory waves from a new flag staff in our front yard, the pupils are greatly inspired and wish to learn all etiquette of the flag.

On Friday afternoon, Dec. 20, Dr. Bridgewater will talk to pupils on, "The Value of Economy."

A recent investigation of what pupils are doing along the lines of thrift shows a number of pupils purchasing lots and a still larger number with bank accounts.

The 2 B Class is having very enthusiastic base-ball games in number work. Visitors are invited. No admission.

The Dunbar Glee Club is arranging special music for Christmas exercises. A story of the notoriety will be given in songs.

On account of time lost during influenza epidemic, the play which was planned for Christmas will not be given, instead, Mrs. Boothe will read, "The Bird's Christmas Carol," to intermediate department.

We are glad to welcome Prof. Magill back after an absence of ten days due to influenza.

With the aid of a crutch, Miss Woodford is able to be at her post of duty for regular work.

The girls basket ball team is preparing to give all opponents a good game.

Mr. Brown and Miss Blanchett were our visitors of last week. We wish to number many of our friends and patrons among our visitors next week.
